A critique of Wendy Doniger's erotic school of Indology

“ The first perceptive Indian to warn us cogently about this plot to break up our country by an alliance of Afro-Dalit tribals, NGOs and Christian evangelists was Rajiv Malhotra in his scholarly work, Breaking India. Today, what he was warning us about is coming to pass. Civilisational alarm bells must go off among all patriotic Indians in the face of this concerted psychological and information warfare. India owes Rajiv a great debt of gratitude for his tireless service to fight for and uphold the values of this most ancient civilization. We can serve the cause of defending our civilisation by reading and disseminating his thoroughly researched books. More power to your pen, Rajiv, and our grateful thanks for your untiring efforts, including this latest one. ”

“India is grateful to Rajiv Malhotra for his decades of personal sacrifice and pioneering original research. He has exposed the global nexus of Hinduphobia and established the foundations of India's Grand Narrative.”
